I have read and understand Calvary Chapel's Biblical Lay Counseling Ministry Policies and I agree to submit to them. I also understand that I am not seeking nor receiving professional paid counseling, but I am asking for Biblical Spiritual advice. I also understand that confidentiality of my disclosures will be maintained by the Lay Counselor and the Pastoral Staff of Calvary Chapel within the guidelines listed in the Counseling Ministry Policies. I understand that all lay counselors will act as a conduit to the Pastoral Staff. All lay counselors receiving information will be receiving such information pursuant to the privilege established in the Florida Statute 39.204 and Florida Statute 90.505. I understand that this privilege granted by these Statutes is subject to Court interpretation and Court Orders. In the event of an Order of Court of competent jurisdiction Calvary Chapel West Jacksonville will release required information unless the counselee takes steps to obtain a stay of such Order and/or review of such Order at appellate levels. I understand that the privilege of confidentiality is an individual privilege. The privilege may be waived should the counselee discuss the privileged matters in the presence of third parties or discuss the content of the counseling with a third party after the counseling session. The discussion of counseling content with a person not a part of the counseling ministry may act as a waiver of privilege.

BIBLICAL COUNSELING MINISTRY POLICIES

1. All counselors are a part of the Biblical Lay Counseling Ministry and some may have secular or professional training. They are spiritually mature and Biblically knowledgeable.
2. All counselors are to open and close every counseling session with prayer and and to refer to an open Bible during the counseling session.
3. The lay counselors are not to discuss any counseling session with anyone who is not a pastor, a minister, or staff member of the Biblical Counseling Ministry. Any contact with a party outside of the foregoing, or the counselee, may be initiated only after first obtaining both written pastoral permission and written permission of the counselee; or through pastoral ministry determination. This privacy and confidentiality privilege may only be modified as set forth herein. Pastoral Counselors will decide whether or not information is to be released.
4. Men are not permitted to counsel women, one on one, and women are not permitted to counsel men, one on one, without pastoral approval.
5. Biblical Counseling is a ministry. Therefore, there is not to be any compensation for any type of Biblical Counseling. Any relationship that extends into the possibility of fees is to be clearly identified to the counselee and approved by the pastoral staff. (Example: legal or accounting work)
6. All officially scheduled counseling is to be done at the church building unless written pastoral permission is granted. The written permission must state where the counseling shall take place, under what circumstances the counseling will take place, and the number of times this counseling will be permitted.
7. Pastoral approval is required for anyone to be counseled more than three times.
8. By accepting counseling by the Biblical Counseling Ministry, the counselee agrees to the following:
  - A. To commit themselves to the purpose of the counseling.
  - B. To be faithful to the scheduled time commitment.
  - C. To be open and honest during the counseling sessions.
  - D. To be diligent in the completion of all homework and/or exercises assigned.
  - E. To commit to a regular schedule of worship, Bible study, and prayer agreed upon with the Counselor.
9. The failure to adhere to the above commitments may result in the counseling relationship being terminated. The termination of counseling will in no way authorize the publication or discussion of any of the privileged communications acquired during the counseling sessions except as herein set forth and as set forth in the Guidelines of the Counseling Ministry.
10. Any violations of the above policies should be reported to the Pastor of the Biblical Lay Counseling Ministry or to any of the Pastors at Calvary Chapel West Jacksonville.
